

A new Bible Study hosted by Bardstown Baptist Church and Bardstown United Methodist Church and taught by the Senior Pastors' wives of both churches (Trona Mays of Bardstown Baptist Church and Sherry Benner of Bardstown United Methodist Church).

Your daughter's growing up. The world has a lot to say to her, and she's starting to listen. Even if she doesn't quite know it, she needs you more than ever. It's time for you to press in, to tell her some things she might not know—or might have forgotten—about who she is in God's eyes.

In her latest Bible study, Vicki Courtney equips moms to have the five conversations that will empower their daughters to stand firm in the midst of a culture that would rob them of their treasured status:

- You are more than what people see on the outside.
- You shouldn't be in a hurry to grow up.
- Sex is great and worth the wait.
- It's okay to dream about marriage and motherhood.
- Girls gone wild are a dime a dozen.

Just five conversations—but they could be the basis for a whole new way of relating to your daughter.

The study will begin Sunday evening, January 31st and continue each Sunday evening through March 7th from 6:00 – 7:30pm each evening. The cost is $15 for the study book. The dates and locations are as follows:
